

MANNA SNACK

Manna literally means “what is it?”

And that’s what God’s people said when they saw a flaky, white substance as fine as frost blanketing the ground outside their tents each morning. It tasted like honey wafers. It was the food God had provided!

Every family was to gather as much as they needed for that day, except for Saturday when they would gather enough manna for two days (Saturday and Sunday). If they had any manna “leftover” it would be filled with maggots and have a terrible smell! (Exodus 16:14-22, 31)

INGREDIENTS:

- Frosted Flakes or Honey Nut Cherrios

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Eat the sweet flakes in your snack pack
2. Imagine what it might have been like to pick this up off the ground every morning!
3. Can you image eating this every morning for 40 years?!
