NOTES FOR PERSONAL & SMALL GROUP STUDY

1 KEEPING IT REAL

Being a parent can be difficult, particularly when our children make bad decisions. Imagine how the God of the Universe grieves when His children disappoint Him. Take a moment to describe your emotions as a parent during those times.

2 LOOK AT THE BOOK

Jesus experienced intense emotion in Luke 19:41-44. According to commentaries, this wasn't a silent tear slipping down His cheek; this was full on weeping aloud. What can we learn about God's love for people from these verses?

3

Parents discipline their children when they disobey, hoping to keep them from continuing down a destructive path. Jesus' prophetic statement in Luke 19 pictures what happens at the end of that path. Does His statement bother you? Does it draw you toward Him?

4 TAKING IT FURTHER

Consider the emotions Jesus may have experienced when He was criticized for His interaction with Zacchaeus (Luke 19:1-10). How was it that Jesus could be so bold as to love one like Zacchaeus? Who is the Zacchaeus in your life?
