THE PROMISE OF HOPE IN THE MIDST OF REALITY

What I believe my mom was trying to teach me (us):

1. Do not forget the good things you were taught. (3:1-2)
2. Do not let kindness and truth wander away from you. they belong together. (3:3-4)
3. Do not think you have arrived: assume you have a long way to go. (3:5-6)
4. Do not be wise in your own eyes, ask God for help. (3:7-8)
5. Do not give God second best. (3:9-10)
6. Do not reject the Lord's rebuke, accept it. (3:11-12)

NOTES FOR PERSONAL & SMALL GROUP STUDY

1 KEEPING IT REAL

Recall a situation where the Lord led you in a way that didn't make sense to you. What did you learn from the experience?

2 LOOK AT THE BOOK

Read Proverbs 3:9-10 and Deuteronomy 26:1-15. Why it is that God places so much emphasis upon the giving of our first fruits to Him?

3

Read Proverbs 12: 1-2 and Hebrews 12:5-11 and examine the value that Godly discipline brings to an individual. In what ways could our society be enriched by this type of discipline?

4 TAKING IT FURTHER

Look for a new opportunity to place God first in an area of your life. Later consider how your life has changed since placing God first in this situation.
