

MESSAGE NOTES | OCTOBER 7 2018

Missionary Guest Speaker

Jeremiah 1:4-8, p. 522

NEXT STEPS

- Memorize Jeremiah 1:4-8.
- Attend Perspectives (13 week missions course introducing us to God's heart for the world) – January, 2019 in Waukesha
- Be a guide at Touched Twice this coming Saturday morning!
- Pick up a mezuzah and scroll before you leave today!

NOTES FOR PERSONAL & SMALL GROUP STUDY

KEEPING IT REAL

- 1 It is quite common nowadays to see "now hiring" or "help wanted" signs in front of area businesses. What do those signs indicate regarding a particular business? How long do those signs stay up?

LOOK AT THE BOOK

- 2 Consider what Jesus says in Matthew 9:35-38 as He evaluates His ministry. What has He been doing up to that point and what does Matthew say Jesus does immediately after?
- 3 What is it that makes going into missions so difficult for us? What do Moses and Jeremiah have to say about it?

TAKING IT FURTHER

- 4 So, here we are some 2,000 years later and harvest workers are still needed because the harvest is great. Appeals go out regularly asking you to take part in the great harvest, this great mission, of the church. God is asking you to take part. Where would He have you "go" (across the table; across the street; down the hall; around the world)?
