

THE Choice

Divided

Roger Ellis, Lead Pastor
Luke 23:32-43, p. 737

Every year, we celebrate Palm Sunday, the day Jesus fulfills prophecy and rides a donkey's colt into Jerusalem to boldly and publicly proclaim that He is the Messiah, the King of Israel. It's the culmination of Jesus' ministry and now it is time for all to make the choice.

Why is it important for us to know that Jesus was crucified between two rebels?

1. To clarify the _____ before each one of us (Luke 23:32-33)
2. To illustrate the _____ of God for us (Luke 23:40-41)
3. To demonstrate how to _____ Jesus (Luke 23:40-43)

THE ONE THING: _____

NEXT STEPS

- Memorize Luke 23:42-43.
- Read the final chapters of each of the gospels this week.
- Take part in the Good Friday Experience (participate/serve).
- Go public for Jesus—Believer's Baptism (April 28).

NOTES FOR PERSONAL & SMALL GROUP STUDY

KEEPING IT REAL

- 1 Can you share a time you had a hard or life-changing decision to make? How did you finally make the decision?

LOOK AT THE BOOK

- 2 According to Matthew 25:31-46, what criteria does Jesus say He will use from His throne when it comes to determining whether one will be placed on the right or on the left?

- 3 Re read Matthew 25:31-46. What are the consequences of the choices people have made in their lifetimes? Why are the righteous surprised by Jesus' statements when they say, "When did we feed, give drink or clothe you?"

TAKING IT FURTHER

- 4 For personal reflection (James 2:14-18): How do my life decisions testify to my decision to follow Jesus?
